Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Dorothy Nygaard graduated from Augustana College as a teacher; and,

WHEREAS, Dorothy's passion is children and Garfield; and,

WHEREAS, Dorothy's first teaching position was in Brandon, South Dakota, for 32 children and, for the past several years, has been teaching at Jefferson School in Pierre; and,

WHEREAS, Dorothy has a talent of reassuring children, guiding each child to do his or her best, expressing pleasure or disappointment in a constructive manner, and exhibited boundless patience; and,

WHEREAS, After 25 years of sharing her love with the youth of this state, Dorothy is retiring, and will be able to devote more time to her favorite past time—sports; and,

WHEREAS, Parents of Dorothy's first grade class hope that parents in the next 25 years will have the honor of experiencing the joy, the love, and the encouragement with other first grade teachers that they found in Dorothy Nygaard's classes; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper that the Governor make note of the outstanding accomplishments of this citizen of South Dakota:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim February 3, 1988, as

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twentieth Day of January, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Eight

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
